

Handout # 8 – for CIS 151

Only 1 -20 is required, 21 to 40 is extra credit, if desired.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of OS is Darwin, the core of Mac OS X?

- A. Linux
- B. Windows
- C. UNIX
- D. DOS

C - Unix

2. You can quickly launch programs that have an icon sitting on this GUI object on the Mac OS X desktop.

- A. Apple menu
- B. Dock
- C. Exposé
- D. Finder

B - Dock

3. This is the main file management tool in the Mac OS X desktop.

- A. Apple menu
- B. Dock
- C. Exposé
- D. Finder

D - Finder

4. This feature of the Mac OS X desktop allows you to select an open application from an array of miniature graphical windows.

- A. Apple menu
- B. Dock
- C. Exposé
- D. Finder

B - Dock

5. What important Apple product (with a GUI) was introduced in 1984?

- A. Apple I
- B. Apple II
- C. Lisa
- D. Macintosh

D - Macintosh

6. Check the version of Mac OS X by opening this desktop object and selecting About This Mac.

- A. Apple menu
- B. Dock
- C. Exposé
- D. Finder

A – Apple Menu

7. What is the name of the page of the Mac OS X Installer that requests your personal information; you can skip it, even though it prompts you to go back and complete it?

- A. Create Your Account
- B. Software Update
- C. Registration Information
- D. Apple ID

C – Registration Information

8. If you have an Internet connection, what message box will appear soon after you complete a new installation?

- A. Create Your Account
- B. Software Update
- C. Registration Information
- D. Apple ID

C – Registration Information

9. The first time you power on a new Mac this program automatically runs.

- A. Exposé
- B. Spaces
- C. Mac OS X Setup Assistant
- D. Spotlight

C – Mac OS X Setup Assistant

10. How can you quickly open an extensive list of installed hardware and software in Mac OS X?

- A. Apple menu | System Preferences | Hardware
- B. Finder | About Finder
- C. Apple menu | App Store
- D. Apple menu | About This Mac | More Info

A – Apple Menu | System Preferences | Hardware

11. From this menu you can shut down your computer, access configuration settings, update software, put your Mac to sleep, restart, log out, access recent items, and learn about your Mac.

- A. System Preferences
- B. Apple menu
- C. OS X Installation DVD
- D. The Command key

B – Apple Menu

12. This is the Mac OS X equivalent of the Windows Control Panel where you can make many configuration changes to your system.

- A. System Preferences
- B. Apple menu
- C. OS X Installation DVD
- D. The Command key

A – System Preferences

13. Using this feature of Mac OS X, you can have separate sets of open program windows for the desktop. It is a handy way to organize different projects or to keep your personal work separate from your professional work.

- A. Exposé
- B. Spaces
- C. Displays
- D. Spotlight

B – Spaces

14. Use this Finder view if you need to see a wealth of information about files and folders at a glance, including date modified, size, and kind of object (folder or type of file).

- A. Icon
- B. List
- C. Column
- D. Cover Flow

B - List

15. Launch this from the Utilities folder and work at Mac OS X's BASH shell, complete with the $ prompt.

- A. Command Prompt
- B. Terminal
- C. Backup
- D. Time Machine

B - Terminal

16. Use this preference pane to configure automatic system backups for your iMac.

- A. Command Prompt
- B. Terminal
- C. Backup
- D. Time Machine

D – Time Machine

17. When you start Finder from the Dock what folder does it open by default?

- A. Desktop
- B. Documents
- C. the user's home folder
- D. Applications

C – the user's home folder

18. What folder contains the Utilities folder?

- A. Desktop
- B. Documents
- C. the user's home folder
- D. Applications

D – Applications

19. You have the appearance preferences pane open; which of the following will quickly return you to the main System Preferences window?

- A. Command key
- B. Show all button
- C. Control key
- D. Option key

B – Show All Button

20. What key combination will quickly open the OS X search utility?

- A. Command-space bar
- B. Command-C
- C. Command-X
- D. Command-V

A – Command-space bar

21. What key combination will cut a selected item?

- A. Command-space bar
- B. Command-C
- C. Command-X
- D. Command-V

C – Command-X

22. Where can you configure the Mac OS X Firewall settings?

- A. Network preferences pane
- B. Security preferences pane
- C. Firewall app in Utilities folder
- D. Account preference pane

B – Security preferences pane

23. What OS X feature would you turn on to encrypt your home folder?

- A. keychain
- B. FileVault
- C. Master Password
- D. Secure Virtual Memory

B - FileVault

24. If you have this set, you can use it to unlock any account on a computer and access any encrypted home folders when a user forgets a login password.

- A. keychain
- B. FileVault
- C. Master Password
- D. Secure Virtual Memory

C – Master Password

25. If you work with data that you must protect from snooping, turn this feature on so that clever hackers cannot access the swap file in an effort to read confidential data.

- A. keychain
- B. FileVault
- C. Master Password
- D. Secure Virtual Memory

D – Secure Virtual Memory

26. This Mac OS X feature is a secure database of a user's passwords.

- A. keychain
- B. FileVault
- C. Master Password
- D. Secure Virtual Memory

A – keychain

27. This type of Mac OS X user account can change all system preference settings and install software in the main application and library folders. It can also create, modify, and delete user accounts. What type of account is this?

- A. administrator
- B. standard
- C. root
- D. super user

A – Administrator

28. This all-powerful account is disabled by default and Apple has tried to ensure that you should never, or rarely, need to use it.

- A. administrator
- B. standard
- C. root
- D. super user

C & D – Root Account (a.k.a. super user)

29. In most cases, this should not be turned on because it bypasses a very important security feature.

- A. FileVault
- B. Automatic Login
- C. Secure Virtual Memory
- D. keychain

B – Automatic Login

30. You have forgotten the password for your account on your MacBook Pro with Mac OS X. You are locked out of your computer. Which of the following will allow you to reset the password so that you can log on again?

- A. System Preferences
- B. Apple menu
- C. OS X Installation DVD
- D. The Command key

A – System Preferences

True / False Questions

31. The Apple II computer was the first personal computer with a graphical user interface (GUI).

True False

False

32. Where Windows has a menu bar at the top of every open window, Mac OS X has a menu bar at the top of the screen containing the menu for the current (active) window.

True False

False

33. Mac OS X comes preinstalled on a new Mac, but the first time you start it up, you must provide information, user preference information (user name, password, and other information) to complete the setup and configuration.

True False

True

34. The Dock icon that appears to be a box filled with gears opens the Utilities folder.

True False

False

35. Non-hardware settings common to all users of a computer are located in the System preferences pane.

True False

False

36. Exposé lets you assign actions to certain keys or mouse buttons that will expose all open windows at once, just application windows, or the desktop.

True False

False

37. The Keyboard preferences pane includes a list of keyboard shortcuts.

True False

True

38. Apple does not recommend installing antivirus software on a Mac OS X system.

True False

False

39. If you select the Firewall setting to block all incoming connections you will not be able browse the Web because web pages will not be downloaded to your computer.

True False

False

40. If an item has disappeared from the Finder Sidebar it will reappear the next time you restart Mac OS X.

True False

False